

- ### Erosion-related Considerations
- Community is located where Great Bear River and Mackenzie River meet
 - The town sits on a series of terraces
 - The islands across from town along Mackenzie River have changed shape and size over the past 40 years
 - Recently completed surficial geology and permafrost mapping of community
 - Ice scour and thawing permafrost contribute to bank instability
 - A prominent gully in community has grown in response to thaw and erosion of permafrost

TULITA

- Local Streets
- Trails
- Winter Roads
- Lake
- Municipal Boundary

NORTH

September, 2023 Imagery (Vantor, Earthstar Geographics)

